Dear Lucy,

Congratulations! Welcome to the Duke University Class of 2030. You and your classmates admitted under our Early Decision program will be the foundation for an incoming class that will help shape Duke's second century.

The Class of 2030 will come to Duke from across the country and around the globe, from a variety of schools and cultures, with talents and interests and goals that reflect Duke's mission in the world. We saw in your application the qualities Duke values: intellectual talent and a love of learning; imagination, creativity, and an inclination toward inquiry; integrity and determination; a sense of inclusion and collaboration; leadership and a commitment to your communities and to making things better. You have earned your place at Duke. We know you will make your mark while you are here and will leave Duke exceptionally well prepared to make a difference in the world.

To confirm your place in the Class of 2030, log in to your online application portal, click on the "Respond to Offer" link, and follow the listed instructions. We ask that you respond as soon as possible, and no later than January 9, 2026. Please note that Duke does not require a financial deposit to hold your place in the class. If you have already applied to other colleges, you must withdraw your application from each individual school immediately. If you are considering a gap year between high school and college, we may be able to offer you some financial support during your gap year. For more information visit dukegapyear.duke.edu.

We appreciate that knowing where you are headed for college will make it easier for you to enjoy the rest of your school year. Please remember—we expect you to maintain high standards of academic performance and personal behavior in and out of school, which includes abiding by our Community Standard. If there is any change in the information in your application—including any academic, personal, disciplinary, or legal matters—you must notify us within 48 hours using the form on your application portal. We reserve the right to withdraw our offer of admission if your standing in any of these areas changes, if you do not notify us promptly, or if you do not meet the terms of the Community Standard between now and the beginning of our fall term.

You have my colleagues' and my warmest congratulations and best wishes for continued success. The entire Duke community looks forward to welcoming you to campus next fall.

Sincerely,

Kathy L. Phillips
Interim Dean of Undergraduate Admissions
